GUADALUPE '87

Greetings!

Grace, peace and blessings to you in the name of
OUR LADY OF GUADALUPE

Come to Las Cruces to a major Guadalupan observance in the United States on the occasion of the Marian Year proclaimed by the Holy Father.

The program will have something for everyone--informative talks by our country's leading Guadalupan authorities; theatrical performances; traditional music of New Mexico and the Southwest; indigenous dances; colorful and original costumes; spiritually moving processions and liturgies and attractive exhibits of Guadalupan images, artifacts and costumes.

Come to Las Cruces and join in this outpouring of love and gratitude to Our Lady. Take the time and make the effort to be here to give your personal witness to the efficacy of Our Lady's extraordinary personal intervention in human affairs.

Come to Las Cruces and replenish your spirit. Be strengthened, inspired and filled with new hope by your interaction with fellow pilgrims who will walk with you in "the coolness of Her shadow and the breeziness of Her shade".

Come to Las Cruces and bask in the picturesque and historical Mesilla Valley, which has been the crossroads of the Southwest since 1581, and the entry point for Guadalupan devotion in the United States.

Admission to all Guadalupe '87 events is free. But, to assist us in our planning, we ask that you detach and return the enclosed Reply Card.

MARTIN C. KELLY, Director

Las Cruces, New Mexico

PROGRAM NOTES

The New Mexico Diamond Jubilee/U.S. Constitution Bicentennial Commission has recognized Guadalupe '87 as an event of historical significance.

Admission to all events is free. A list of hotels in the Las Cruces area can be forwarded if the appropriate box on the Reply Card is checked.

An exhibit of historical and/or artistic Guadalupan images, artifacts and costumes will be on display at the Hilton Hotel during Guadalupe '87. The exhibit will move to Branigan Cultural Center in Las Cruces for the period November 1-23, 1987.

Papers and scripts presented at Guadalupe '87 will be published. Check the appropriate box on the Reply Card if you wish further information.

Las Cruces is approximately 45 miles north of El Paso, Texas. Flights should be booked to El Paso International Airport. Shuttles connect to Las Cruces.
